

CARIBBEAN TAKEAWAY TAKEOVER: IDENTITIES AND STORIES POP-UP INSTALLATION. AT THE MIGRATION MUSEUM LONDON

Windrush Day: Caribbean Activity Day.
22 June 12pm - 4pm

Caribbean Activity day where elders who took part in telling their stories in the Caribbean Takeaway Takeover identities and stories, project will be able to share their experiences, and a spoken-word event on Saturday 22 June will take place as part of nationwide Windrush Day celebrations. There will be an opportunity see the installation, listen to amazing stories and immerse yourself in the space.

Caribbean Luncheon Migration Museum 12-2pm: Invited Guests

Welcome Migration Museum Director & Artist Ewewright and team
Introduce the Essex elders who took part in the project
Two members of the group will speak about their experience of taking part in the project.
Caribbean meal and refreshments for elders from the project, their families and invited guests to share a meal and see the installation.

Meet the Elders and Spoken Word event: 2pm - 4pm Free Public Event

An opportunity for members of the public to see the installation, listen to stories and meet some of the elders who took part in the project.

Come and listen to our spoken word artist, poet, Storyteller Malika Booker <http://malikabooker.com> & guest poet who will reflect on the experiences of migration and stories of the Windrush generation.

Contact :email: ionie@ewewrightstudio.com
Ewewright Arts Foundation, Studio 204,
High House Artist Studios, Artisan Way, Purfleet, Essex, RM19 1TT.
Tel: +44 (0) 8450 542 305.

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

+
EWEWRIGHT ARTS FOUNDATION
+

